ROOMLINX SIGNS EXCLUSIVE DEAL WITH JAMES L KNIGHT CENTER & MIAMI CONVENTION CENTER

-- Multi-Year Contract Secures RoomLinX as Provider of High-Speed Internet Services for Convention Center Patrons--

Hackensack, New Jersey (October 05, 2004) –RoomLinX, Inc. (OTCBB: RMLX) a leading provider of wireless high-speed network solutions to the hospitality industry, announced today that it has expanded into the convention center business and has signed a multi-year, exclusive deal with the JAMES L KNIGHT CENTER & MIAMI CONVENTION CENTER.

“Just a few months ago, we shared plans to offer quality high-speed wireless services to an expanded market including convention centers. We are excited to announce such a strategic deal along with the launch of this expanded strategy,” said Aaron Dobrinsky, CEO of RoomLinX. “The demand for high-speed wireless services in convention centers has existed for several years and we plan to leverage our expertise in serving the hospitality industry to meet the needs of this market. The JAMES L KNIGHT CENTER & MIAMI CONVENTION CENTER is one of the largest such venues in the U.S. and will inspire others to examine the value Wi-Fi provides to guests and to the bottom line.”

RoomLinX and the JAMES L KNIGHT CENTER & MIAMI CONVENTION CENTER will share revenue generated from the use of high-speed access at the center. RoomLinX will provide onsite tech support year-round for the more than 200 convention days each year. The JAMES L KNIGHT CENTER & MIAMI CONVENTION CENTER hosts a wide range of events including graduations, corporate events, design, auto and medical conferences and is one of the premier locations for Latin American events in the U.S.

Those attending or hosting events at the center will be able to access the Internet wirelessly throughout the venue.

“It won’t be long before all convention centers offer high-speed wireless services but we are proud to be among the first and excited to have secured RoomLinX as our partner in this initiative,” said Bob Murray, General Manager of the JAMES L KNIGHT CENTER & MIAMI CONVENTION CENTER. “RoomLinX is well known within the hospitality industry for its quality service and support. We are highly selective when it comes to providers in our convention center and we are confident that our customers will enjoy the RoomLinX service.”

RoomLinX currently provides high-speed wireless services to hotels and conference centers throughout the US. In recent filings with the SEC, RoomLinX reported providing services to approximately 18,000 rooms in more than 67 locations as of the end of June 2004. The Company conducts site surveys and custom-designs networks for each property, installing services within days. RoomLinX offers 24 X 7 customer support as well as network monitoring and troubleshooting.
